Year 10 Cakes

Hugh Nowlan "as part of our assessment for year 9/10 food tech, we were given the opportunity to bake and decorate birthday cakes. Decorating the cakes was a thrilling experience and I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity."

Sophie Hughes "This cake assessment was a great experience to develop our decorating skills."

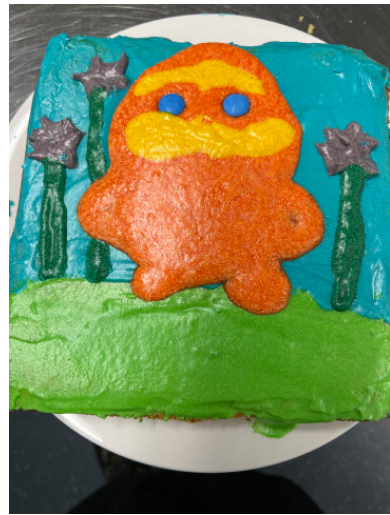

Zarah Durham "I feel cooking is an experience that younger and older students should have the opportunity to do. I really enjoyed doing food tech. learning and The time management plan was great and easy to follow has many opportunity's so don't feel worried if you mess up it's all in learning."

Daniel Lutherborrow "I thought it was great. I made a Bluey cake. I thought it would look good, but it looked okay. But I learned a lot from this prac and learned from my mistakes eg that for next time I need to start with a lot more icing than what you expect you need. I would recommend doing food tech for year 9 and 10, its full of fun and laughter."

Brooke Brandt “My experience baking and decorating this cake was interesting, it was a great experience to be a part of, though it would be better to have more organisation. Being able to use your own imagination to create/design this cake was a great aspect of making it more enjoyable. Overall, it was an amazing chance to express all your ideas.”

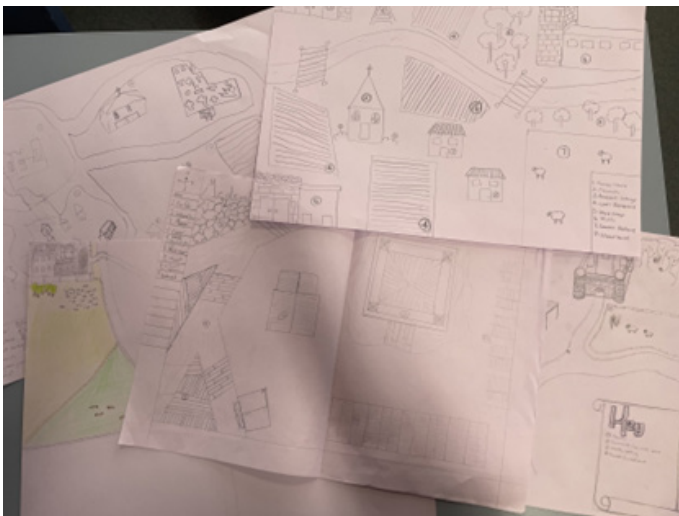

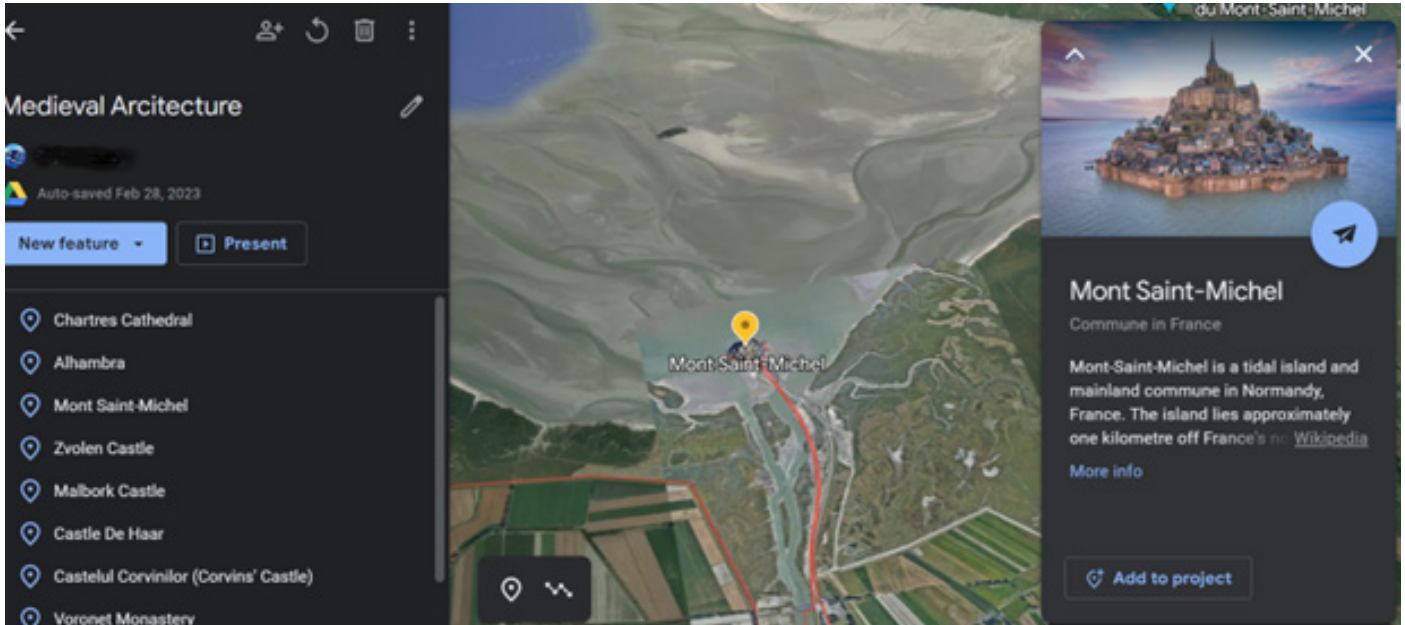

CSU Wagga Open Day

What a great opportunity! Dale and Kaitlyn attended a Charles Sturt University residential program on 5 August to explore the many opportunities that CSU offer. Thanks to our CEF branch and Jenny Armstrong for supporting our students.

What's Happening in History?

This week in History, Year Eight has been exploring medieval architecture. We began by looking at the key features of medieval manors and what went into making a medieval town, including using water mills for grinding flour and the lords' castle. Students then designed their own manor systems, looking at how they would structure their spaces and support the people of their manor. Students then used Google Earth to look at some of the key features of medieval architecture. We explored medieval wonders such as the moorish palace of Alhambra, the tidal island and monastery of Mont Saint Michel and the impressive stained-glass windows at York Minster.

Accelerated Reader aims towards supporting students' growth in literacy by encouraging them to find both fiction and non-fiction reading that they enjoy. Students across 7-9 have two timetables Accelerated Reading sessions, where they are given the space and time to enjoy books of their own choice. Whilst the growth of students is a reward in itself, the real joy for library staff is seeing students enjoy reading and hearing them recommend and talk about the books that they have loved.

Well done!
